 Made with No Gluten Containing Ingredients, likely to contain traces of gluten!

Our food is not suitable for those with gluten or milk allergies. We use large amounts of loose flour and cheese. All of our cooking equipment, including oil, is exposed to both gluten and milk. We serve food with No Gluten Containing Ingredients as a reduced-gluten option, but this food is not gluten-free.

Equipment may be used to prepare and cook dishes with different dietary profiles. For more information, please ask a member of staff.

Our kitchen has limitations due to its size and nature. Processes are in place to minimise cross-contamination, but we cannot guarantee the absence of allergens in our food.
